

Annual Annapolis by Candlelight
November 6 & 7 2009
5pm-9pm

Thank you for your purchase of Annapolis by Candlelight tickets. This popular tour not only provides support for the Foundation's preservation and education programs and activities, but also highlights the charm, hospitality, and handsome buildings for which Annapolis has become known. This year's tour highlights private homes, historic inns and two mansions from the colonial era. Tour sites are located at:

30 Cornhill Street
10 Fleet Street (Friday only)
40 Cornhill Street
57 Cornhill Street
56 Cornhill Street (Members Only)
Governor Calvert House, State Circle

25 State Circle, State House Inn
The Maryland Inn, 16 Church Circle
6 Cumberland Court
Hammond Harwood House, 19 Maryland Avenue
James Brice House, 42 East Street

General Tour Information

Your tickets (buttons) and programs may be picked up beginning November 2 at HistoryQuest at 99 Main Street. They may also be picked up here on the evenings of the event.

For a detailed map of the downtown area, please visit

http://www.discover-annapolis.com/downloads/maproute_for_parkinggarage.pdf

Parking along the tour route is mostly reserved for residents. Parking is available at the Hillman Garage with entrances on Duke of Gloucester and Main Streets, or Gotts Court Garage with entrances on Calvert and Northwest Streets.

The tour is held rain or shine!

Member's Only House: The houses located at 56 Cornhill Street is reserved for Foundation members only. To enter the home, you must have an Annapolis by Candlelight button that identifies you as a member. If you are not already a member, we encourage you to consider joining. In addition to benefits such as the member's only house, members also get discounts on all Foundation events. You may become a member by calling 410-267-8146 – be sure to indicate that you have already purchased Candlelight tickets and you are upgrading so you can view the Members Only House.

Flashlights will be given to all participants who purchase tickets in advance. Flashlights may be picked up when you pick up your Candlelight admission button.

Flat-soled walking shoes are a must, as they are safer, don't damage historic wood floors, and are much more comfortable for strolling the uneven historic streets and sidewalks of Annapolis.

You are invited to take pictures of the exterior of tour houses, but please refrain from taking pictures inside.

Please remember to be respectful of private property. Please refrain from touching walls, furniture or any decorative objects.

Please be aware that private homes are not handicap accessible and wheelchairs cannot be accommodated in private historic homes.

Restaurant Discounts: Many of the area restaurants are offering discounts to patrons wearing their Annapolis by Candlelight buttons. Please note that discounts apply only to food and do not include alcohol, tax, and gratuity.
