

Preservation in Action

Save Charles Carroll the Barrister's House!

Annapolitans, like Anne St. Clair Wright worked hard to save and preserve historic buildings. Historic Annapolis's first major project raised funds to move the Charles Carroll the Barrister House from its original site on Main Street to the campus of St. John's College to save it from demolition.

Preservationist: supporter or advocate of the preservation of something, especially of historic buildings and artifacts.

